FOX SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED TO FORTY-SEVEN UM UPPERCLASSMEN

MISSOULA--

A total of $13,950 in scholarships has been awarded to 47 University of Montana upperclass students for the 1973-74 academic year through the estate of the late Mrs. Sadie H. Fox, a Missoula resident for 61 years who was an alumna and long-time friend of the University.

Last month the names of 41 Montana high school graduating seniors who will be freshmen at UM were announced as recipients of $14,916 in freshmen scholarships by UM Financial Aids Director Donald Mullen.

All of the awards, ranging in amount from $250 to $500, were based on outstanding scholastic achievement and financial need, Mullen said.

The Fox scholarships were endowed to the UM Foundation in 1960. Mrs. Fox, who came to Montana from Iowa in 1887, lived with her family in Helena and then on a ranch near Stark, 40 miles northwest of Missoula. She attended UM and what is now Western Montana College, Dillon. Mrs. Fox was instrumental in planning the Women's Club of Missoula building at UM, which also houses the UM Alumni Center.
